Grandchild means a child of the employee's child.

Grandparent means a parent of the employee's parent.

Parent means the biological, parent-in-law, adoptive, step-brother or step-sister of the employee.

Spouse means a husband or wife or domestic partner of an employee.

Family Member Equivalent: an individual related to the employee by blood or affinity whose close association the employee shows to be the equivalent of those family relationship.

Question 11: If dates are "Continuous", the employee must provide the start and end dates of the requested CT PFML. These dates should be the actual dates that the CT PFML will begin and end. If uncertain, estimate the start and end dates and indicate "Dates are estimated". If dates are "Periodic", enter the dates CT PFML will be taken. Please be as specific as possible. If the dates are unknown or estimated, indicate "Dates are estimated".

If dates are estimated, The Standard may require you to submit a request for payment after the CT PFML day is taken. Payment for approved claims will be due 15 calendar days from the date of the claim decision.

Question 12: Date employer was notified. If the employee is submitting the CT PFML request to their employer with less than 30 days' advance notice from the start date of the CT PFML, the employee must explain why 30 days' notice could not be given. If the explanation will not fit in the space provided on the form, enter "See Attached" and add an attachment with the explanation. Be sure to include the employee's full name and their date of birth at the top of the attachment.

Employment Information (to be completed by the employee)

Question 14: Enter the date of hire to the best of the employee's recollection. If it has been more than a year since the date of hire, entering the year in which employment started is sufficient.

Question 19: List all other income you will be receiving while on CT PFML. Include the type/name of income and how much. Example PTO from employer for $500.00 a week.

If you are pre-submitting form: Indicate if the employee is pre-submitting their CT PFML request. Pre-submitting is defined as submitting the application in advance of an upcoming qualifying event, with certain required information missing due to the information being unknown at the time of the submitting. If pre-submitting is permitted by The Standard, the missing information must be supplied as soon as it is known. Benefits cannot be determined until all of the required information is provided.

The Standard will provide the employee a notice within five days which 1) states the claim is pending; 2) identifies what information is missing; 3) instructs how to submit the missing information. Payment for approved claims will be due 15 calendar days from the date of the claim decision.

If The Standard does not permit pre-submitting, The Standard must return the Request for Connecticut Paid Family And Medical Leave within five days to the employee with an explanation that the claim should be re-submitted when all information is available.

Employee signs and dates, before giving this form to their employer to complete Part B.

PART B - EMPLOYER INFORMATION (to be completed by the employer)

The employer of the employee requesting CT PFML must complete all information in Part B.

If the employee is requesting Connecticut Paid Family And Medical Leave (CT PFML) to bond with a newborn, an adopted child or a foster child, the employee must submit the Bonding Certification (Form CT PFML-2) with the Request For Connecticut Paid Family And Medical Leave (Form CT PFML-1).

BONDING CERTIFICATION (to be completed by the employee)

The employee requesting CT PFML must complete all applicable requested information.

Send completed forms and supporting documentation to The Standard.

If this form is being submitted in advance (pre-submitting) and some information is unknown, the insurance carrier will contact the employee and explain how to provide the required additional information.

Question 1 & 2: If the form is submitted to the CT PFML insurance carrier prior to the birth of a child, this is considered pre-submitting. The employee is then required to provide the required documentation of the child's birth to the CT PFML insurance carrier. The CT PFML carrier will tell the employee how to provide the required additional documentation.

There may be instances where CT PFML can be taken before the adoption or foster care is finalized. For example, the employee may be required to appear in court or travel to another country as part of the adoption or foster care process. The employee should include documentation to show that the CT PFML is necessary to further the adoption or foster care.

Question 5: See chart below for documentation details. Unless specified, do not send the original documents.

Bonding Form/Certification	Description
Health care provider certification of pregnancy	An original letter obtained from the birth mother's health care provider that certifies pregnancy. It should include the mother's name and the expected due date.
Health care provider certification of birth	An original letter obtained from the birth mother's health care provider that includes the mother's name and child's date of birth.
Birth Certificate	A copy of the certificate issued by the city or county office in which the child is born.
Voluntary Acknowledgment of Paternity	A copy of the form that establishes legal fatherhood when the parents are unmarried. Completed by both mother and father.
Court Order	Documentation of the order from the family court that names the father of a child. Establishes legal fatherhood when the parents are unmarried. Completed by both mother and father.
Marriage Certificate	A copy of the official statement issued by the town or city clerk from which the marriage certificate was issued.
Civil union/domestic partner's documentation	A copy of the certificate of civil union or domestic partnership.
Foster care placement letter	A copy of the letter of foster care placement issued by the county or city department of social services or authorized voluntary foster care agency.
Court documents of adoption	A copy of the court document finalizing adoption or documentation in furtherance or court order finalizing adoption.
Other documentation	Other documentation of parental relationship may be accepted if none of the others listed apply.
